

Elizabeth Stanley is currently getting “Carried Away” in the Broadway revival of On the Town, as the man-crazed anthropologist, Claire de Loone (Drama Desk Nomination). A Broadway veteran, she first caught the attention of New York audiences and Stephen-Sondheim-fans with her portrayal of the flight attendant, April, in the 2007 Tony-Award-winning revival of Company. She again pleased NY and Sondheim-fans with her portrayal of Gussie Carnegie, in the New York City Center, Encores! production of Merrily We Roll Along. Other roles originated on Broadway include: Allison, in John Water’s Cry-Baby, and Dyanne in the rock’n’roll musical, Million Dollar Quartet. First National and Japanese Tour: Kira in Xanadu. Off-Broadway: The Nurse in Hello, Again (Transport Theatre Group—Drama League Nomination, best ensemble). TV: Black Box, Made in Jersey, Fringe, The Chappelle Show, All My Children, The Today Show, Jimmy Fallon, the TONY awards, PBS Great Performances. Numerous leading roles regionally: Sundance Theatre Lab, Goodspeed Opera Co., Barrington Stage Co., Sacramento Music Circus, Philadelphia Theatre Co., Pittsburgh CLO, Rep. of St. Louis, The O’Neill, La Jolla Playhouse, Pioneer Theatre Co., Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park. Ms. Stanley has also wowed audiences with her vocally versatile concert performances in New York City’s Town Hall Broadway by the Year series, as well as her own self-written cabaret shows at 54 Below and Birdland. She has been a soloist with the Cincinnati and Ft. Wayne Pops Orchestras. Upcoming: A Sondheim Celebration with Chicago’s Grant Park Orchestra, and I Get Carried Away: A cabaret tribute to Comden and Green at Barrington Stage Company. A Midwestern native, Elizabeth is a graduate of the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. Twitter: @ECStans. <http://www.elizabethstanley.net>
